REGISTRATION POLICIES:

Registration:

All courses and course materials must be paid for in full at the time of registration. Late registrants (i.e. after the commencement of the course) are subject to the full course fee and will not receive a discount for missed classes. All programs, prices and instructors are subject to change without notice. Non-sufficient funds (NSF) transactions will be charged $15.

Withdrawals and Cancellations:

Student Withdrawals:

Students may cancel their registration without charge up to two weeks prior to course start date. Withdrawals occurring less than two weeks prior to the start of a course are subject to an administrative fee of $20. Students withdrawing after courses start will be issued a prorated refund and an administrative fee. No refunds will be issued after the third week of classes.

Deferring Payment to Another Term:

If students withdraw from a course before it has begun, they may choose to defer the payment from that course to one in another term rather than receiving a refund. In such a case, the deferral must be used within one (1) year or a refund will be issued. Deferrals may not be made after a course has begun. Deferrals are not subject to administration fees.

Transfers:

Students may transfer to another course within the first two weeks of a course. Course transfers are subject to availability.

Cancellation of courses and classes:

In the event of course cancellation, registrants will be notified as soon as possible and a full refund will be provided. Courses may be delayed due to limited enrolment. In this case, registrants will be notified as soon as possible. In the event of class cancellation due to weather, illness, or other unforeseen circumstances, a make-up class will be arranged.
